The Es Vedrà Dream — Privacy, Mediterranean Living and One Unforgettable View for Sale

The Ibiza Power View — Es Vedrà from Your Private Mediterranean Retreat

A Private Mediterranean Retreat with One of Ibiza's Most Extraordinary Views
Set in the peaceful hills of Cala Carbó on Ibiza's spectacular southwest coast, this exceptional luxury villa occupies a privileged elevated position overlooking the Mediterranean Sea and the legendary silhouette of Es Vedrà.

Surrounded by lush Mediterranean nature, the property combines privacy, tranquillity and breathtaking panoramic views with refined contemporary living. From its terraces, gardens and principal living areas, Es Vedrà becomes a constant presence — changing with the light throughout the day and creating one of the most captivating settings Ibiza has to offer.

The villa features four elegant bedrooms and four bathrooms, beautifully designed interiors, landscaped Mediterranean gardens, a private swimming pool and multiple terraces and chill-out areas conceived around the extraordinary scenery.

This is a home for those seeking something beyond conventional luxury: privacy, natural beauty and one of Ibiza's most iconic landscapes.

Cala Carbó – One of Ibiza's Most Magical Southwest Locations

Cala Carbó is one of the island's most desirable enclaves for buyers searching for peace and privacy while remaining close to some of Ibiza's most beautiful beaches and celebrated sunset locations.

Hidden between dramatic hills and the Mediterranean, the area retains an intimate and authentic atmosphere that has become increasingly rare on the island.

Nearby are Cala Carbó itself, Cala d'Hort, Cala Vadella and Cala Tarida, while the spectacular coastline surrounding Es Vedrà provides some of the most recognisable scenery in the Mediterranean.

The charming village of San José is also within easy reach, providing restaurants, cafés, boutiques, supermarkets and year-round amenities.

Ibiza Town, the airport and the island's principal marinas remain comfortably accessible, allowing the property to combine a secluded southwest-coast lifestyle with convenient connections to the rest of Ibiza.

The Es Vedrà View – An Ibiza Icon from Your Own Home

The defining feature of this exceptional villa is undoubtedly its view.

Rising dramatically from the Mediterranean, Es Vedrà forms an extraordinary natural backdrop to the property. From the villa's elevated hillside position, panoramic views extend across the surrounding landscape and open sea towards this iconic landmark.

Rather than being limited to a single terrace, the architecture and outdoor spaces have been conceived to maintain a strong visual relationship with the Mediterranean landscape throughout the property.

Morning light illuminates the surrounding hills and vegetation before giving way to Ibiza's famous golden afternoon light and spectacular evening skies.

It is the kind of view that never becomes ordinary.

Mediterranean Architecture with Contemporary Elegance

The villa beautifully balances authentic Ibiza character with sophisticated modern design.

Natural stone, warm timber, handcrafted details and soft earthy tones establish a relaxed Mediterranean atmosphere, while clean contemporary lines and large expanses of glass give the interiors a fresh and elegant character.

The result is understated rather than ostentatious — a sophisticated home that feels completely appropriate to its natural surroundings.

Large glass doors and windows allow abundant natural light into the property while simultaneously framing the sea, gardens and Es Vedrà beyond.

Light-Filled Interiors Designed Around the Landscape

At the heart of the villa lies a beautifully connected open-plan living environment incorporating the lounge, dining area and kitchen.

The layout has been designed around effortless Mediterranean living.

Large glass doors open directly onto the terraces and gardens, allowing the interior and exterior spaces to merge naturally. During Ibiza's long summer months, the entire living area can effectively become part of the outdoor environment.

Natural textures, warm wood elements, stone details and carefully selected finishes create an interior that feels elegant yet wonderfully comfortable.

Every element supports the same philosophy: relaxed luxury without unnecessary formality.

Four Elegant Bedrooms and Four Bathrooms

The villa offers four beautifully appointed bedrooms and four bathrooms, providing excellent accommodation for family and guests.

Each bedroom has been designed as a peaceful private retreat, using natural materials, calming colours and carefully considered details to reinforce the sense of tranquillity found throughout the property.

The emphasis is on privacy, comfort and connection with the surrounding environment.

Together, the bedroom suites make the property equally suitable as a permanent family residence or sophisticated Ibiza holiday home.

A Private Mediterranean Garden

Outside, the villa transforms into a secluded Mediterranean sanctuary.

Mature planting and beautifully landscaped gardens surround the property, creating privacy while allowing the extraordinary views to remain completely open.

Natural vegetation has been carefully integrated into the exterior design so that the villa feels embedded within the landscape rather than imposed upon it.

The combination of stone, greenery, Mediterranean planting and the deep blue sea creates an atmosphere that is unmistakably Ibiza.

Poolside Living with Es Vedrà as the Backdrop

The private swimming pool forms the centrepiece of the outdoor living experience.

Surrounded by sun-drenched terraces, Mediterranean gardens and comfortable relaxation areas, it provides an exceptional setting for long summer days overlooking the sea.

Different terraces and lounge areas allow residents and guests to move naturally between sun and shade throughout the day.

Morning coffee overlooking the Mediterranean, afternoons beside the pool and evening drinks as the light changes behind Es Vedrà become part of everyday life here.

Few settings capture the Ibiza lifestyle more completely.

Made for Effortless Outdoor Living

The villa’s outdoor spaces have been created not simply as terraces surrounding a house, but as individual environments for living, relaxing and entertaining.

The landscaped grounds provide:

- Private swimming pool
- Panoramic sea and Es Vedrà views
- Multiple sun terraces

- Shaded relaxation areas
- Mediterranean gardens
- Outdoor lounge and chill-out spaces
- Seamless indoor-outdoor living
- Exceptional privacy

The elevated position enhances both the views and the feeling of complete seclusion.

The Southwest Ibiza Lifestyle

The property is ideally positioned for enjoying some of Ibiza's most celebrated coastal destinations.

Within easy reach are:

- Cala Carbó
- Cala d'Hort
- Es Vedrà
- Cala Vadella
- Cala Tarida
- San José
- Es Cubells
- Cala Jondal
- Casa Jondal

An Exceptional Ibiza Home Defined by Its View

There are beautiful villas in Ibiza, and then there are properties whose location gives them something impossible to reproduce.

This is one of those homes.

Its combination of privacy, Mediterranean architecture, beautifully landscaped gardens and elevated panoramic position would already make it an exceptional property. But the uninterrupted relationship with the Mediterranean Sea and the extraordinary presence of Es Vedrà elevate it into something altogether more special.

For buyers searching for a luxury villa for sale in Cala Carbó with panoramic sea views, Es Vedrà views, four bedrooms, private swimming pool, Mediterranean gardens and exceptional privacy, this property represents a rare opportunity on Ibiza’s coveted southwest coast.

A private Mediterranean retreat where architecture and nature come together around one of the most unforgettable views in Ibiza.
