Description

Can Bella Vista is a grand old finca dating back to the 14th century, originally used as an Olive farm, (Still producing large quantities today). The Finca has been lovingly restored by the renowned architect family Blakstad. Located on a hilltop in the peaceful area of Santa Inés, the property benefits from 360 degrees views of the island and magnificent sunsets across the sea to the West. A large open courtyard leads to the main entrance and very spacious living areas. The Finca has 5 double bedrooms with bathrooms and a large home-cinema room. Nestled in the beautiful gardens (Designed by renown landscape architect Tom Stuart Smith) is a hideaway cottage consisting of 3 bedrooms en-suite, large salon, and kitchen. In the grounds there are 3 further outdoor dining areas all with stunning views. There is a small artists studio interestingly constructed in wood. An infinity pool area completes this magnificent estate with its summer kitchen. The property has a garage and numerous storage areas. With its sweeping views through the mountains to Formentera, this large house of over 700 square metres situated in 45 hectares of land offers complete privacy for family living and entertaining friends. !
