Location

Description

Authentic Ibicencan country estate situated in the rural country side between Jesus and Sta. Eulalia. From this private setting the finca enjoys beautiful distant landscape views over its own and the surrounding land, dominated by terraced farm land, hills and pine woods. The estate is reached by a private drive way. Distribution: traditional sala used as living room with high ceilings and a fireplace as well as access to the covered porch in two levels. Typical country kitchen with access to a dining terrace with a rustic pérgola, overgrown with wine-plants. 5 bedrooms in total with 3 bathrooms. The main house has three bedrooms and one bathroom. Two reformed stables are converted into two separate guest houses. Both offers living room, kitchen, bedroom and bathroom. Around the property one will find different open and covered terraces and the traditional ibicencan countryside blends in beautifully with the authentic gardening with many olives, sabinas, fruit trees and Mediterranean vegetation. Slightly separate from the main house the large pool with pool house is perfectly integrated in the landscape. Garage and storage rooms. The property is equipped with central heating.
