Description

The Villa, with its three majestic domes, features 350m² of living space and terraces, incorporated into a Moorish style with an oriental feel. There is a swimming pool area of 350 m² in a patio and some partially covered verandas including elegantly towering arches. Palm trees sway in the garden. The outdoor area consists of 3200 m² located in a peaceful, private and natural zone, facing the sea and Es Vedra. From the garden there is a path that leads directly to Cala Carbo beach.

This extraordinary villa is the Es Vedra rock within reach. Front of the villa is a nature reserve and there must be no further house to be built there. Thus, the property is located in the first line of the sea. Due to the extraordinary minimalist Landscaping is the villa and grounds in one with the lying about nature. Anyone who has a sense of extraordinary places, feels safe here immediately. Not only weddings are celebrated in this special place, the A prominence is always looking for the way to this area.
