This is a residence designed for those who seek space, elegance, authenticity, and total peace, without giving up proximity to the island's most important destinations.

The Location – Privacy, Nature & Perfect Connection

One of the most valuable aspects of this estate is its setting. Surrounded by countryside and protected nature, the property offers the silence and serenity that make Ibiza so special. Here, you are immersed in a landscape of light, greenery, and open sky, far from noise and overdevelopment.

At the same time, the villa remains well connected to the island's key hotspots, beaches, and villages, allowing you to enjoy both seclusion and convenience. It is the ideal balance between retreat and accessibility — a rare quality in Ibiza's luxury market.

The Main House – Timeless Elegance, Grand Volumes & Mediterranean Soul

The main house offers approximately 550 m² of built area, designed with generous proportions, high ceilings, and beautifully flowing spaces. From the very first moment, the home conveys a sense of understated luxury and calm sophistication.

An Exceptional Opportunity on Ibiza

Properties of this calibre are rare.

A newly built estate that combines finca character, modern luxury, sea views, and complete privacy on a plot of this size represents one of the most desirable offerings in Ibiza's premium real estate market.

This is more than a home — it is a private world of its own, shaped by nature, architecture, and Mediterranean light.

Villa 1:

An additional and extremely rare opportunity exists to acquire the neighbouring newly built luxury villa (Reference 2451), creating one of the most impressive private estates currently available in Ibiza.

The adjacent property, a newly built luxury finca with sea views and complete privacy, can be purchased together with this estate for an additional €13,000,000. Combined, both properties would create an extraordinary ultra-private compound with a total investment volume of €24,000,000 — a unique opportunity for buyers seeking a large-scale luxury retreat, family estate, wellness sanctuary, or trophy investment in Ibiza's premium real estate market.

The neighbouring villa offers its own 15,000 m² plot, sea views, elegant Mediterranean architecture, and a newly built high-end finca design that blends perfectly with Ibiza's natural surroundings.
