Description

This beautiful traditional style home is located in a peaceful sought after area overlooking the breathtaking views of Es Vedra. The house has a living area of 400m² and sits in a very private plot of approx. 3000m². The house has its own private entrance with a beautiful palmed driveway complimented with stunning grass lawns and greenery. The property has 6 bedrooms in total and 5 bathrooms. Two of the bedrooms are situated in the guest house on the lower floor which enjoy plenty of space, independence and both with sea and garden views. The spacious pool area has a jacuzzi and a large sun terrace which again overlooks the amazing Es Vedra. This property is very child friendly as it is fully enclosed and surrounded by the traditional style Wall which makes this a very private property not overlooked by neighbors. The property has mains water and electricity however this property certainly would increase in value with a good cosmetic make over.
