This modern designed finca type mansion is set on top of a mountain with a breathtaking view to the sea and the country side. Due to its elevation, one has outstanding panoramic views of Cala San Vicente and all the way 'round to the island of Tagomago. One of Ibiza's most beautiful properties located in the northeast corner behind the quaint and popular town of San Carlos. The current owner built the property and has spared little money on the finishings. The rental income from this property is also very interesting to potential investors. Landscape was made with hundreds plantings as different palm trees, fruit trees, cactee.... this property is too good to be true.
