Location

Description

This meticulously built finca is located near the village, is nevertheless privileged on a mountainside and therefore offers beautiful panoramic views over the surrounding countryside across to the coast and the sea. The property was created and impressed by consuming material used in high quality, such as the generous use of natural stone in interior and exterior.

In this country was not only an impressive villa built in finca style but also a comfortable guest house, which has a living / dining area with adjoining kitchen, a bedroom and bath. The high-quality equipment extends from the floor heating, fireplaces up to sound systems and electric outdoor blinds.

Property of this size in direct spatial proximity among the absolute rarities in the property market of Ibiza.
