The villa

This gigantic property has a 540m² built living space spanned over a generous 5.631m² plot. Upon entering the hall, you will find traditional stairs and the warm wooden beams on the ceiling that give the house character. The open plan living room has a traditional fireplace, and is perfectly connected to the garden with its many floor to ceiling windows. There is a large corner kitchen with a separate door to the garden as well. To make the house more comfortable, certain practical features are added such as a walk-in fridge in the grand kitchen, and a modern elevator in the hallway. Moving upstairs, the master bedroom has a beautiful balcony overlooking the tropical garden and magnificent pool, with the ocean in the background. It also comes with a large ensuite bathroom. The other bedrooms also have their own balconies with the spectacular garden views, making it a dream to wake up in your own private paradise.

The house also comes with air conditioning and heating to keep room temperatures comfortable in any season. Noteworthy, the main characteristics of this magnificent property will be maintained, but renovated with a beautifully new interior design project from Blakstad.

The outdoor spaces

The centerpiece of this lush and tropical garden is the remarkable 246m² large swimming pool. Take a refreshing dip in one of Ibiza's most beautiful pools, and enjoy a private retreat in your own serene oasis. This garden is also ideal for entertaining and hosting guests with its many convivial and shaded terrace areas, decorated with its pink flowers. On top of that, there is also a small pathway at the back of the garden, bringing you closer to the ocean in just a few steps. In addition, the front garden offers a large piece of land for agriculture. Entering the property, you will find an automatic gate with a luxurious two-lane driveway, where you can comfortably drive in and park your car in the shaded parking space at the end of the roundabout.
