Location

Description

On the hills of Sant Agustin, on the west coast of Ibiza, is this exquisite property consisting of 3 houses with a total constructed area of 2,500 m2 on a stunning plot of 119,000 m2.

Each of the houses has been built to the highest standard, with no detail overlooked and all materials carefully selected and handpicked.

The landscaping that has been done here is exquisite. The old agricultural terraces have been recovered and restored and are now the place where many different fruit trees and orchards live.

As each of these houses is completely independent from each other, each has its own kitchen, living room, dining room and pool, all with the same quality standards and all with spectacular views of the island's countryside and the beautiful sea backdrop.
