Location

Description

Designed by the famous architect Blakstad, this property is located in a beautiful rural area, within walking distance of Cala Xarraca and the beaches of the north. Built with large arches, it opens on two sides to enjoy the views of the magical Xarraca Valley and the sea. Outside there is a large infinity saltwater pool surrounded by terraced farmland with various types of fruit trees. The foyer with high ceilings leads to the kitchen, a large living and dining room and a double garage with utility room. There are currently three very large bedrooms, two bathrooms and a guest room that opens onto the courtyard or pool area. The property has water and electricity from the mains and there is a wine cave, donkey houses and an old ruin. An absolute privacy, yet close to the picturesque village of San Juan.
